

Carpe diem (Is that what I am?)

"They ask me how I am

I tell them I don't care"¹

What I got from them

's experience to share:

I've heard someone say:

"Getting old".

Or "same sh...oot every day"

Another person's told.

A different kind of question is

Quo vadis?

"I don't know where I'm going

Only God knows where I've been

I'm a devil on the run, a six"² string "lover, a candle in the wind".²

Happy? When I look around, yes.

All the better when listening to, like, Chess,

Or walking barefoot in the grass.

And watching her beauty I can caress.

Future? "If you want to see God laugh, make a plan".³

Our lifespan?

“How would it be if you were standing in my shoes?”⁴

“No pleasure cruise”⁵

I definitely could make some scrambled eggs.

But I'd much rather have ...

Something else for breakfast in my lodge.

Perhaps even a drop of Scotch

To get high

As you're kinda

As cuddly as a panda
